

LATINLAWYER

Four firms behind Kruger Brown plastic acquisition

Emilio Demetriou-Jones 27 January 2017

Wisconsin firm Quarles & Brady and Mexico's Santamarina y Steta \(/11250/firms/1135595/santamarina-y-steta\) have helped investment company Kruger Brown Holdings (KBH) close the Mexican leg of its acquisition of US based plastic producer, The PendaForm Company.

Durakon Industries Mexico, which is controlled by PendaForm, hired Kirkland & Ellis LLP in Chicago and Mexico's Von Wobeser y Sierra SC \(/11250/firms/1135924/von-wobeser-y-sierra-sc\) for the deal.

The acquisition closed on 22 December with no value disclosed.

Counsel to Kruger Brown Holdings

Quarles & Brady

Partner Nathan Mathews and associates Rachel Taylor and Patrick Taylor in Wisconsin

Santamarina y Steta \(/11250/firms/1135595/santamarina-y-steta\)

Partner Pablo Laresgoiti and associate Iván Szymanski in Mexico City

Counsel to The PendaForm Company

Kirkland & Ellis LLP

Partners Gregory Bauer and Walter Holzer and associate Melanie Harmon in Chicago

Von Wobeser y Sierra SC \(/11250/firms/1135924/von-wobeser-y-sierra-sc\)

Partner Luis Burgueño Colín and associate Laura Maldonado Ferrer in Mexico City

Practice area :

Corporate governance

Country :

Mexico